

- 1) Write a function to find the maximum of three numbers. The function will have 3 parameters. The three numbers will be supplied by user in the main body of the program.
- 2) Write a function that determines if a number is in the range of two other numbers.
- 3) Write a function that takes two parameters: i) a phrase, and ii) a number. The function will print out that phrase as many times as the number provided.